EARNED 130 EAGLE SCOUT RANKS, demonstrating leadership, service, skill-development, and unlimited potential.

on local, community-minded service projects (that's nearly 32 HOURS per enrolled scout!)

“ Whether I’m volunteering, mentoring my younger scouts, or giving small advice to my friends, I always carry the sense of leadership that Scouts embedded me with.

– JOSH, Eagle Scout 2025, Troop 201, Nuuanu

“ Scouting taught me that being a leader isn’t about being in charge. It’s about taking initiative, staying rooted to your values, and doing what needs to be done, even when the path you take isn’t a straight one, even when there are no eyes on you. As an Eagle Scout, I will carry that spirit of service forward, not just as recognition of everything I’ve done, but as a commitment to the kind of person scouting created me to be.

– DEVON, Eagle Scout 2025, Troop 488, Aiea

“ Scouting had become less about rank and routine and more about the people and experiences. Looking back, I realize that the moments spent alongside friends, building, learning, and leading were what truly made it meaningful.

– LAWRENCE, Eagle Scout 2024, Troop 100, Makawao

SCOUT SPOTLIGHT

Noah Kalehuawehe

Recipient of the John Henry Felix Leadership through Service Award Scholarship

“The Lahaina fires hit close to home. Our troop and my church immediately jumped into action, unloading water, passing out supplies, and doing whatever we could. I was close to people who had lost everything. My entire troop knew we had to do something.

... That experience brought it all full circle for me. In a time of tragedy, Scouting gave me the structure and tools to serve with purpose. It showed me how to stay calm, how to lead, and how to support people when they're at their lowest.”
